William H. FAULKNER, Sign of the Shirt, south side Fennsylvania avenue, respectfully invites the citizens of Washington, and all others who desire to have SHIRTS of all sizes, qualities, pattern, or price, to call upon him at his Shirt Factory, opposite the United States Hotel; where he will execute their orders, and warrants his shirts, which are manufactured by the Scansatresses of Washington only, to be good fits and good workmanship. William H. Faulkner has thirty Washington seamstresses constantly employed in making shirts, the demand for which has greatly increased since they have been worn and tested by members of Congress and other citizens who have purchased them. He would respectfully submit that an establishment like his, which gives regular employment, at fair living prices, to a large number of respectable and industrious females, is deserving of liberal encouragement from the citizens of Washington especially, who are bound by principles of reciprocity and interest to encourage their own seamstresses, manufacturers, and mechanics.

Georgerown, June 27-12 m.

The interruption on the canal was caused by a slight breach near dam No. 4; it has been thoroughly repaired, and boats are again running on the entire line, without any interruption.

At Forrest Hall, last night, there was a full house, and judging from the thundering outbursts of laughter and applause, the audience Stocks quiet and unchanged. were highly pleased with the evening's entertainment.

Nothing is more pleasant on a warm day than trip to the Georgetown College, there to enjoy the pleasant company of its inmates, the refreshing shade of the beautiful trees that line its well-regulated walks, partake of the pure sparkling water, flowing fresh from the mother exists at Belvidere, Boone county, in conse-earth, and fanned by the cooling breezes which murmur through the rich foliage of the trees that surround it. From its elevated position you may have an uninterrupted view of the majestic Potomac, forcing its way through the towering hills, and over its rocky bed, deepening and widening as it moves onward, bearing upon its bosom the many beautiful vessels of every class heavily laden with the rich treasures and products of the earth-the surrounding hills clad in the rich garniture, and the fields of golden grain ready for the sickle; all conspiring to delight the eye, refresh the body, and invigorate the mind.

The flour and grain market remains unchanged, and but little of either coming in. Several vessels are below, bound up.

REAL ESTATE IN VIRGINIA FOR SALE. This subscriber has not yet disposed of his real estate in Prince William county, Virginia. He is still desirous of selling, and will do so on accommodating terms. It consists, first, of 947 acres of land, in from two and a half to four miles of Brentsville, the county town, four-teen miles of Occoquan, thirty miles of Alexandria, and from four to five miles of the Orange and Alexandria Italiroad, which will be completed to Brentsville this year. This land is well adapted to the growth of wheat, corn, rye, cats, and grass. It is a mixture of the red and grey soil, and admirably adapted to improvement by the use of clover, plaster, guano, &c. It is heavily timbered, and finely watered, having lasting springs of the purest water. It is capable of being divided into five or six good sized farms, and with tolerable buildings and small orchards on four of them. I will sell it all in a body to a company, or will divide it to suit purchasers, at prices ranging, according to quality, at from $3 to $5 per acre. I will only require one-fourth of the purchase money in hand, and the balance I will divide in three annual payments, to bear interest from the date of sale, to be secured on the property. Land is rapidly rising in value in the neighborhood, and I offer great inducements now, as I wish to turn my attention to other pursuits.

Secondly. A square of buildings in the town of Brentsville, suitable for a carriage-maker, wheelwright, or blacksmith, with two dwelling-houses, kitchens, blacksmith, carriage, and wheelwright shops, and other necessary buildings. $1600 is now my price for this property—on the same terms as the land. It is within a mile and three quarters of the railroad.

Thirdly. Nine and a quarter acres of land on the turn-pike, just above Buckland, on which are a good dwelling-house, a large wheelwright shop, kitchen, stable, dairy, and smoke-house. It would make a good tavern stand, and the shop a good stable. For this property I will take $500—on the same terms.

Fourthly. A large lot in the village of Buckland, known set the tan-yeard lot, on which there is a comfortable house Fifthly. A lease lot in Haymarket, with a pretty good house, kitchen, a large shoemaker's shop, stable, &c. The buildings are a little out of order. The lease may run for ten or twelve years. For this I will take $100.

Sixthly. A valuable farm in Alleghany county, Maryland, containing 200 acres, within eight miles of the National Road, and ten to twelve miles of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. This farm is in a thriving neighborhood, the say little timbered, has a good and never-failing stream Onto Rairond. This arm is in a triving neighborhood, is heavily timbered, has a good and never-failing stream of water running through it, and several mill-sents; abounds in iron ore and coal; has a fine sugar maple or chard on it, and a mineral spring, which I think equal to the White Sulphur or Bedford, and has now some forty or fifty acres of the land cleared. The soil is not surpassed fifty acres of the land cleared. The soil is not surpassed by any in the country. I am disposed now to take $4 per acre for it. Mr. Abraham Steel, who lives near it, will show it to any one wishing to purchase. The property in Prince William county, Virginia, will be shown by Eppa Hunton, esq., who is authorized to sell; or by Mr. Edwin W. Latimer, or Mr. Bobert Hodgkin. I shall be in Brentsville about the middle of May, and will, in person, show the property to any one wishing to purchase.

HENRY A. BARRON.

HENRY A. BARRON is now in the neighborhood of Brentsville, Prince William county, Ya., where he would be glad to see any of his New Jersey, New York, or Pennsylvania friends, and sell them any of his real estate. It is all still for sale, except the Brentsville property and the farm in Alleghany county, Maryland. On the balance of his real estate, which he is anxious to sell before the 1st of July, the liberal credit of three years will be given. One-fourth in hand to bind the bargain, with legal interest on the balance, and secured on the land. He respectfully invites all desirous of purchasing land in Prince William to call on him. to call on him.

THE CHRISTIAN STATESMAN.

A WEEKLY NEWSPAPER. Devoted to African Colonization and Civilization to Literature and General Intelligence.

THE undersigned propose to publish, in the City of Washington, a weekly newspaper, bearing the above title, and dedicated to a sound morality in Politics, to the Union of the States, to the cause of African Colonization and Civilization, and to all topics of a high and general interest to their country and mankind. They will endeavor to impress upon the People and Government of the United States and of the several States the importance of colonizing in Africa, with their own consent, the free people of color of this country, and such as may become free. They will communicate to the public all important information they may obtain in regard to the Geography, Exploration, Resources, Commerce and Population of Africa; the state of the Slave Trade, and the measures best adapted for its suppression; and will enforce the duty of to Literature and General Intelligence. adapted for its suppression; and will enforce the duty of union smong all Christian denominations in efforts to dif-fuse the knowledge of our Arts, Liberty, and Christianity, among the barbarous people of that Continent.

They will aim to render the journal an instructive and useful Family Newspaper, and to secure for its columns, as the public favor shall enable them, contributions, literary and scientific, of decided merit.

rary and scientific, of decided merit.

The Christian Statesman will be of the size of the Home Journal or National Era, and exceed in size the Intelligencer or the Union of this city; and, with but few advertisements, will be nearly filled with matter designed to be of interest to its readers.

It will be printed with new type, on fine white paper, and, in mechanical execution, be equal to the best newspapers in the country.

Teins.—The Christian Statesman will be two dollars a year, payable in advance.

Positions.—The Cortain Salesman will be two colours a year, payable in advance.

Mr. Robert Sears—Dear Sir: I have looked over the entire series of your valuable publications with much interest and profit; and am quite surprised at the amount of literary labor you have performed, and the research it must have cost you to obtain so many fine illustrations, while you have an active superintendence of an extensive business. I am also gratified at the decidedly moral and religious influence which your books will exert, and cannot but hope that they will do much to counteract the effects of that light and immoral literature which deluges the land, and, like the frogs of Egypt, comes up even to the kneading troughs of our kitchens. May you live long to follow your plans.

The present edition of this standard and favorite Latin Lexicon has been much improved by the transfer to its columns of the classical distinctions of Latin words, as given in the Lexicon of Dr. Wm. Freund, of Germany, and translated by Riddle. The classical degree of each word is indicated by a figure; for example, a word without a figure is fully classical and Ciccromian; with the figures 1, 2, and 3, words are classical only in the first, second, &c., degrees; and this distinction the student perceives at a glance. The Etymological Index, also from Freund's Lexicon, has been incorporated into the present edition of Leverett, and will be found a valuable acquisition. While transferring these notes and marks, catalogues were carefully kept of the words found in each Lexicon, which were not found in the other. On comparing these catalogues, it was found that the value and importance of the additional words found in Leverett, so far as a knowledge of the Latin language is concerned, very far exceeds that of those found in Riddle's Freund. The extensive use of Leverett's Lexicon in all parts of the country, and the preference which has been universally given to it over all similar works, render its recommenda-The present edition of this standard and favorite Latin country, and the preserence when an been univergiven to it over all similar works, render its recommendor superfluous; but attention to this new edit respectfully invited, as being still more worthy the predecessors of the distinguished favor which the has hitherto receive

BRITISH QUARTERLY REVIEWS. OWING to the late revolutions and counter-revolutions among the nations of Europe, which have followed Beackwood's Edinburgh Magazine.

In these periodicals are contained the views, moderately though clearly and firmly expressed, of the three greatest parties in England—Tory, Whig, and Radical; "Blackwood" and the "London Quarterly" are Tory, the "Edinburgh Review" Whig, and the "Westminster Review" Liberal. The "North British Review" owes its establishment to the last great ecclesiastical movement in Scotland, and is not ultra in its views on any one of the grand departments of human knowledge. It was originally edited by Dr. Chalmers, and now, since his death, is conducted by his son-in-law, Dr. Hanna, associated with Sir David Brewster. Its literary character is of the very highest order. The "Westminster," though reprinted under that title only, is published in England under the title of the "Foreign Quarterly and Westminster," it being in fact a union of the two Reviews formerly published and reprinted under separate titles. It has, therefore, the advantage, by this combination, of uniting in one work the best features of both, as heretofore issued.

The above Periodicals are reprinted in New York, immediately on their arrival by the British steamers, in a beautiful clear type, on fine white paper, and are faithful copies of the originals—Blackwood's Magazine being an exact fac simile of the Edinburgh edition.
